

Saint Luke, the Evangelist

(October 18/31)

Saint Luke wrote in the Third Gospel about the coming of Christ and His teachings. He is also the author of the Book of Acts. The Gospel written by Luke tells the story of the earthly life of Jesus. The Book of Acts covers (охватывает) the missionary work of the holy apostles and the first thirty two years of the life of the Church.

Saint Luke was one the most educated and talented men of his time. He spoke many languages, and was a brilliant doctor, good orator and gifted artist.* Church historians tell us that Saint Luke was born in Syria and educated in Athens and Alexandria. When Luke learned about Jesus he went to Palestine to hear Him. Luke accepted the teachings of Jesus with all his heart and became one of the seventy disciples.

Evangelist Luke was a close friend of Saint Apostle Paul. Together they traveled to Greece and Rome. Luke's Gospel was written in Rome in 62-63 A.D. After Paul's death, Luke left Italy and traveled to Egypt where he continued to preach about Christ.

We know that Saint Luke made the first icon of the Holy Theotokos and Infant Jesus. When the Virgin Mary saw the icon, She said, "May (да будет) My grace and that of Him Who was born of Me be with this icon." According to holy tradition, Luke painted three icons of the Blessed Virgin Mary. One of them is now kept in Constantinople. Saint Luke also painted images of the holy apostles Peter and Paul.

The earthly life of this devout disciple came to an end in the city of Thebes. Saint Luke died when he was over eighty years old.

Matthew, Mark, Luke and John are the Evangelists. "Evangelist" is a word of Greek origin that means "one who proclaims the Good News."

David and Goliath

The Philistines lived to the south-west of Israel. They often were at war with Israel. Once, when Saul was king, the Philistines gathered their armies and prepared to attack.

David was a shepherd boy at that time. His three older brothers were in Saul's army. Once, David's father asked him to go to the military camp and bring food to his brothers. David did as his father told him.

Among the Philistines was a soldier of enormous height and strength. His name was Goliath. He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze. (17:5)* Goliath mocked (смеялся над) the Israelites and wanted to fight the strongest of King Saul's men. But everybody was afraid.

David said to the King that he would accept Goliath's challenge (вызов). And Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are but a youth, and he has been a man of war from his youth." (17:33) But David was a brave shepherd who many times had saved his sheep from bears and lions. And Saul said to David, "Go, and the Lord be with you!" (17:37) David did not wear heavy armour. He chose five stones, put them into his shepherd's bag and came near the Philistine. Goliath looked at the boy and laughed at him. And the Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. (17:43)

David took out a stone, slung it and hit the Philistine in his forehead. Goliath fell dead to the ground.

When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. (17:51)

* 5000 сиклей равны примерно 57 кг. Во времена, описываемые в Книге Царств, филистимляне владели технологией выплавки меди и железа и имели много опытных мастеров-оружейников, поэтому воины их армии были так хорошо оснащены металлическим оружием и доспехами.
