

The Sunday of the Myrrh-Bearing Women

(Third Sunday of Easter)

On the third Sunday of Easter our Church celebrates a special feast in honour of Jesus' deeply devoted disciples, the Myrrh-Bearing Women.

Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary, the wife of Cleopas, Salome, the mother of James and John, and the sisters Mary and Martha. The Myrrh-Bearing Women followed Jesus from Galilee, where He started His ministry, to Jerusalem and Golgotha. They were with Jesus during His arrest and crucifixion; they stood by the cross and accompanied Him to His burial. The women's love for Jesus knew no fear even in dangerous times, when the men who followed Him denied Him.

For their faith and selfless service, the Myrrh-Bearing Women were chosen to be the first to hear about Christ's Resurrection.

Early in the morning, on the third day after Jesus' death, the women brought expensive fragrant oils and myrrh to the tomb. They came to anoint the Body, as was the ancient tradition. Instead of the Body of Jesus, they found an angel in the tomb who told them that Christ had risen. The angel instructed the women to tell the other disciples about Jesus' Resurrection.

Not much is known about the lives of the Myrrh-Bearers after Christ's Resurrection. The sisters Mary and Martha traveled to various lands with their brother Lazarus and proclaimed the Gospel. They reposed in Cyprus. Mary Magdalene helped St. Evangelist John to preach the word of Jesus in Asia Minor. Our Church honours Mary Magdalene as equal-to the Apostles.

The Myrrh-Bearing Women represent all that is good and pure in the Christian faith. They are examples of true Christian women – selfless, devoted and loving.

There is a story about how the tradition of colouring eggs started.

After Jesus' Resurrection, Mary Magdalene went to Rome. There she met the ruler of the Roman Empire, Tiberius. Mary Magdalene greeted the Emperor with the words, "Christ is Risen!" As she spoke, she held a plain white egg. Tiberius did not believe her. "It is as impossible for a dead man to come back to life as for this egg to turn red." As soon as he had said that, the egg in Mary's hand turned red. Tiberius exclaimed (воскликнул) in amazement, "Truly He is Risen!"

Christians all over the world dye eggs in bright colours for Easter celebrations. Red is traditionally the favourite colour.

Christ Is Risen!

The Body of Jesus was laid in a tomb in a garden, near the place where He was crucified. A large, heavy stone was rolled in front of the door of the tomb. At the end of the sabbath (суббота), Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome brought fragrant oils to anoint the Body.

And very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb when the sun had risen. And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the door of the tomb?" (Mark 16:2-3)

But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had already been rolled away. As the women entered the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side. His clothes were as white as snow. The women became very afraid.

"And he said to them, "Do not be amazed; you seek Jesus of Nazareth, Who was crucified. He has risen, He is not here; see the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples and Peter that He is going before you to Galilee; there you will see Him, as He told you." (16:6-7)

The women were so afraid that they fled from the tomb trembling.

Jesus appeared first to Mary Magdalene and cast seven demons out of her. Mary went and told the grieving disciples that she had seen Jesus, but they did not believe her.
